RAJYA SABHA

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether his attention has been drawn in this context to the news-item, Enforcing earthquake resistant building norms not viable experts appearing in the Hindustan Times, dated 21st January, 2001; and

(e) if so, Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) This Ministry had written to all States and UT's in May 1998 to modify their building bye-laws by incorporating earthquake safety measures as per specifications formulated by Bureau of Indian Standards. After the earthquake in Gujarat, they have been reminded to take urgent action in this regard and send a feed back to this Ministry. In respect of Delhi for which this Ministry is responsible, a public notice has been issued for inviting public objection and opinion on the modifications suggested in the Building Bye-laws. This modification proposes to make it mandatory that the structural design of foundation, masonry, timber, plan concrete etc. would be carried out taking into consideration the Indian Standards for earthquake protection of building and that the certificate of doing so would be signed by the owner and the architect.

(d) Government has not come across any such news item in Hindustan Times dated 21.1.2001 at Delhi.

(e) Question does not arise.

Plan to Curb Growth of Unauthorised Constructions in Delhi

1140. SHRI R.K. ANAND : Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have chalked out any effective plan to curb growth of unauthorised constructions in Delhi;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and
